“ He was a great father. He enjoyed being around his family and friends. He had a great heart. He loved to laugh and make everyone else laugh. He was always there when you needed someone to talk to. We talked everyday on the phone. We have a lot of good memories together that I will always cherish. He will truly be missed. I will always miss and love you dad.

“ Where do I start.. they were so many, from childhood til adulthood... He was truly an amazing human.. has such a gentle soul, kind heart and Would give you the shirt off his back , last dime if you needed it.. This says a lot about him to me ... My grandson Jaiden is very funny about who he talks and associates with .. But the first time he ever saw Greg he went straight up to him and started talking like he known him all his life ...Greg would be the first thing he looked for when we pulled up at home to see if she was out side ... He'd say is Man home ... cause that is what he always called him .. Man... Greg will be truly missed every day!!! We love and Miss You!!
